

Privacy Statement

You will be asked to provide personal details in certain parts of this website. European Markets is subject to UK data protection legislation, and we are committed to protecting you by maintaining security and privacy of all personal information collected. European Markets has issued this notice in accordance with the Personal Data Act (1998). Changes to our Privacy Policy will be stated on this page. Data may be held on both physical and/or electronic media. European Markets may use this data for marketing purposes, and we may keep you informed of our services or send you marketing material from time to time by post, email, telephone, fax or other electronic messaging service unless you indicate to us that you would prefer not to receive it. If you do not wish to receive this information, or wish to request a copy of the data that we hold on you please notify us at the company address. European Markets will charge a small administration fee to provide you with a copy of the data held on you.

Telephone communications may be recorded by European Markets for monitoring or training purposes.

If you have any questions about our privacy policy, please contact the compliance officer at the company address
